

DEPARTMENT OF PSYCHOLOGY

Psychology is an exciting and fascinating science concerned with real world applications in everyday life. It is a respected profession around the world. Beyond being a Professional Psychologist, one can apply knowledge to studies of human behavior in anthropological and social scenarios all over the world. The common factors linking people who study Psychology are curiosity and the search for knowledge. Education in Psychology offers many benefits that last a life time! The Psychology Department aims to provide students with a comprehensive knowledge of the Scientific Discipline of Psychology, opportunities for practical experience and growth in the understanding of self and others. The department emphasizes excellence in teaching and active student involvement in scientific empirical research.

Year Of establishment BA - June 1969

VISION

The Department of Psychology postulates to promote an understanding of behavior and the underlying mechanisms, scientifically analyzing psychological paradigms and applying empirical research to solve the complexities of human interactions. We aspire to catalyze students into competent professionals, transforming knowledge into directives for holistic living.

MISSION

The Department strives to impart learning of theoretical constructs, administration of psychometric tools and operative techniques of intervention in Counseling and Psychotherapy. We provide hands on training in assessment, diagnosis and management of psychological conflicts through in house practice sessions and real time exposure at mental health care settings.

OBJECTIVES

- *To promote optimum Personality Development.
- *To develop Sound Mental Health and Healthy Human Relations.
- *To develop Skills in Psychological Assessment and Diagnosis.
- *To develop skills in Counseling using varied Psychotherapeutic Techniques.
- *To develop Affective Skills.
- *To develop Skills to Conduct Research.